第四部分 写作（共两节，满分 40 分）

Dear Michael,

I'm writing to share with you an English calligraphy competition in our school last Friday.I have benefited a lot from it.

To improve English writing, I'd been practising for a long time. I often turned to teachers for tips on how to write beautifully. Moreover, all my friends were encouraged to point out my writing shortcomings.

Efforts and hard work paid off. When attending the competition, I wrote fast and neatly, feeling confident that I could make it to top three. The final result: I finished third. What a great surprise!

Yours

Li Hua

Looking at the fruits and vegetables at the store, I got Plan C. “Hey, look, the fruits and vegetables over there. How about making our jack-o’-lanterns out of them?” I said, full of excitement. They all agreed and we took immediate action to pick out our ideal items at the store. A few minutes later, we loaded up our shopping cart with large apples, pears, potatoes, carrots and cabbages. Then we drove home, laughing all the way. On arriving home, we began our carving work and had everything ready for the coming party.

The next evening, my family attended the jack-o’-lantern party in our neighbourhood. It was more fun than I could have imagined. There were lots of pumpkin jack-o’-lanterns on display with scary faces. But my family’s creations drew the most attention. Many neighbors gathered around us, pointing at our special jack-o’-lanterns and continuously asked us about the story behind each item. From their satisfied expressions, we knew we made it. It was the most fantastic and unforgettable party I had experienced. My brother and I both learned that if something unexpected happens, never give up, get creative and come up with new plans.
